

IDEA B: Making an appointment to get tested in your home and at a convenient time for you by a trained HIV counselor. Individuals would be reminded about the appointment their preferred mode of contact such as a post card, email, phone call, or text message.