

IDEA C: Getting an HIV home test kit that is registered to an individual and mailed to that individual every 6 or 12 months, as preferred. The user of the kit would be asked to text a picture of the result to a designated number so that the test result can be verified by a trained HIV test counselor.